The whole picture

Our full time mediators earn between £40,000 and £50,000 per annum

South West Mediation is one of UK's largest and most established mediation practices. We provide family mediation both on a private basis and under a Legal Aid contract in 12 locations throughout the southwest - in Bristol, Somerset, Devon, Wiltshire and Gloucestershire. We continue to grow and are looking for family mediators especially those who are able to work in the Bristol/Bath area.

We are looking for FMC Accredited family mediators who can offer availability of between 3 and 5 days a week.

If you are interested in joining our team of mediators, please send your CV and covering letter to vicki.lewis@southwestmediation.co.uk so that we can arrange a confidential initial telephone discussion.
