

An introduction to Kinship Care

Who is the course for?

Family law mediators who may be new to working with non-parents or more than two participants.

Kinship Care mediation can be complex work. It may involve working with more than two clients, and other family professionals as well as colleagues, all at the same time. It is crucial to have an understanding of the law and the variation in arrangements, so that clients can make informed decisions.

This course will explain:-

- types of kinship care arrangements
- funding available for families
- where to get further information
- Online – 4 hours

When and where?

13th May 2024, 10am to 2pm

Online – 4 hours

Who is running it?

Rebecca Hawkins and Claire Webb from Family Solutions

Cost

£100 per person (inc VAT)

Book via Eventbrite or scan the QR code

SCAN ME