

The Relationships Service Vacancy Accredited Family Mediators (self-employed)

We are seeking experienced and qualified Family Mediators to join our growing network on a self-employed basis.

This is an excellent opportunity for professional mediators who are passionate about helping families navigate separation, divorce, child arrangements, and financial matters in a supportive and impartial environment.

As a Self-Employed Family Mediator, you will:

- Conduct mediation sessions for separating and divorcing couples.
- Support clients in resolving issues relating to children, finances, and property.
- Assess suitability for mediation through Mediation Information and Assessment Meetings (MIAMs).
- Maintain accurate case records and documentation.
- Work in accordance with the Family Mediation Council (FMC) Code of Practice.
- Participate in regular PPC (Professional Practice Consultant) group meetings and meet CPD FMC requirements.
- Deliver a professional, empathetic, and client-focused service.

Essential Requirements

- Qualified Family Mediator with FMC accreditation and willing to undertake legally aided mediation.
- Registered with the Family Mediation Council.
- Proven experience conducting family mediation sessions.
- Strong communication, negotiation, and conflict-resolution skills.
- Ability to work independently and manage your own caseload.
- Enhanced DBS check (or willingness to undertake one).
- Experience preparing Open Financial Statements, Memorandums of Understanding, and Parenting Plans.

What We Offer

- Flexible working arrangements.
- Competitive fee-sharing structure.
- Some administrative, operational and peer support.
- Access to referrals and a growing client base.
- Remote and hybrid working opportunities.

How to Apply

Please send your CV and a brief covering letter outlining your mediation experience, qualifications, and current FMC status to NicolaC@relationships-service.org.uk

We welcome applications from mediators of all backgrounds and are committed to promoting equality, diversity, and inclusion.

Join us in helping families find constructive solutions during challenging times.

The Relationships Service